

DAILY GAZETTE

In view of recent instructions, including Alabama and Illinois, the Las Vegas Gazette believes Grant will be nominated and defeated. We commend its ignorance of the public mind when it says even Tilden can beat Grant.—Era Southwestern.

Gen. Grant will be nominated at Chicago and will be beaten at the polls. People don't like third term men, and he is no good president anyhow, as two terms has demonstrated. He makes a very poor president. He shows his weakness when he allows himself to be a candidate for the nomination. Under the circumstances that should be sufficient grounds to defeat him. But the machine will nominate him at Chicago against the wishes of a majority of the party. There will be nothing of unanimity and spontaneity in his selection. It will be the result of the hardest kind of wire pulling and use of money by the most corrupt and unscrupulous elements of the republican party; and the nomination of such a poor candidate by such vicious methods will enable Sam Tilden or any other man with as much sense, as large wealth and as great rascality as the latter possesses to easily beat the Grant.

According to the special yesterday, it appears that Gen. Grierson, with the tenth cavalry, is on the way from Texas to co-operate against Victorio and hostiles from the south. Five more companies, three of the fourth and two of the fifth cavalry, will go from Colorado to Albuquerque by rail and then the wily savage in and capture him. This must be taken as an earnest of the good faith in the promises of the commandant that we published a few days since. It looks now as though Victorio's triumphant career would soon be brought to a close, and the people of Southern New Mexico be delivered from this scourge of rapine and murder. It has been a long time to wait, but we anticipate that the authorities have become thoroughly aroused to the gravity of the situation and will now do what should have been done at the start, put in a force sufficient to surround and destroy Victorio and his followers. He is a dangerous Indian to fool with and has killed more people, captured more stock and waged a more successful war, with fewer warriors, than any Indian in the history of this country.

The road from the plaza to the Springs has been declared a county road, by the county commissioners, which is about the extent of their authority in that direction. It now remains for the road commissioners to call out the able-bodied citizens to work and improve this high-way. It is not a good road at present. It should be made a good one, and the sooner the work is commenced the better.

Mr. H. E. Fraley, of the Las Vegas meat market, is preparing a room in the Miguel Romero building on the north side, to be occupied as a meat market, in addition to the one on the east side. He has just returned from the San Juan country, where he bought 500 head of beef cattle, and drove them through to supply the demand here. He proposes to supply the very best meat obtainable.

The Era Southwestern does not seem to understand that there is anything good in White Oaks. It will wake up to find itself mistaken some day. Prospects have gone in there by hundreds and we will take chances on their coming out with valuable properties. The mineral is there and they will find it.

Hon. T. Romero is at present at his stock ranch at La Cima rounding up his cattle and looking after the shearing of sheep. Parties desiring to purchase sheep would find this a good opportunity to see them while he is there.

Mr. Avery Turner, the veteran and popular conductor on this end of the main line, was the recipient, the other day, of a handsome silver-plated lantern, the gift of his old railroad compadre, Scott Moore of Vegas.—Era Southwestern.

Messrs. Welding and Anderson, of Watrous, will start out this morning with their own conveyance for the White Oaks. They will take provisions sufficient to last them two months, and go thoroughly prepared to prospect.

The arbitrators in the case of Carico & Fay and Edwards, Towner & Co., rendered their decision yesterday. They gave the plaintiffs an award of $3,325. Both sides seem to labor under the impression that they were beaten.

Superintendent Harwood will hold quarterly meeting at the Methodist church the first Saturday and Sunday in June, on his return from Cincinnati, Ohio.

—The Denver Times says Colorado will send six delegates to the Chicago convention instructed for Grant, not because the people are for him but because Governor Routt is for him.

—Quite a number of men are working in the placer diggings on and near the White river, Col. There is an abundance of water in all the gulches, and some of the mines are paying well.

—John Campbell, the surveyor, was busy yesterday surveying into town lots and platting the piece of ground of H. Romero & Bro., between the bridge and the acequia on the east side of the river.

—The White Oak boom hasn't let up a bit and never will. It has the mineral and it will have the machinery. Besides, the great number of well known mineral regions are not all the advantages possessed by that section. It is a great stock raising grazing and excellent agricultural country. Some of the finest farming lands in the Territory exist there. Men who don't mine can farm and dispose of their products at high prices.

General health demands of every citizen that not only his premises should be kept clean, but, it is his duty, to report to proper authorities any infringements against the same.
